DEAR RANDY, THANKS FOR ALL YOUR HELP
IN MAKING THIS ACQUISITION HAPPEN.
WE ADORE THE PROPERTY!

YOU ARE A CONSUMMATE PROFESSIONAL!

We saw a few important transitions in 2017. After renting near Kingston for a few years, we finally found and purchased a cottage on Wolfe Island. We all fell in love with this property, which features its own little island and stunning sunset views. Most importantly, however, it is halfway between Toronto and Montreal, making it the ideal family gathering spot for years to come.

THANKS
AGAIN,
Brian
